

58CMA OIL FURNACE

DELIVERING RELIABLE, ENERGY-EFFICIENT INDOOR WEATHER

WARM UP WITH CARRIER'S RELIABLE AND EFFICIENT OIL FURNACES.

WARM COMFORT

When it's cold outside, you can enjoy the warmth of indoor comfort with a reliable Carrier 58CMA multipoise oil furnace. Built for a variety of applications, these oil furnaces combine the comfort, performance and reliability that you expect from the leader in indoor weather technology.

Delivering up to 80.5% AFUE (Annual Fuel Utilization Efficiency), Carrier's 58CMA oil furnace offers an economical solution to your heating needs.

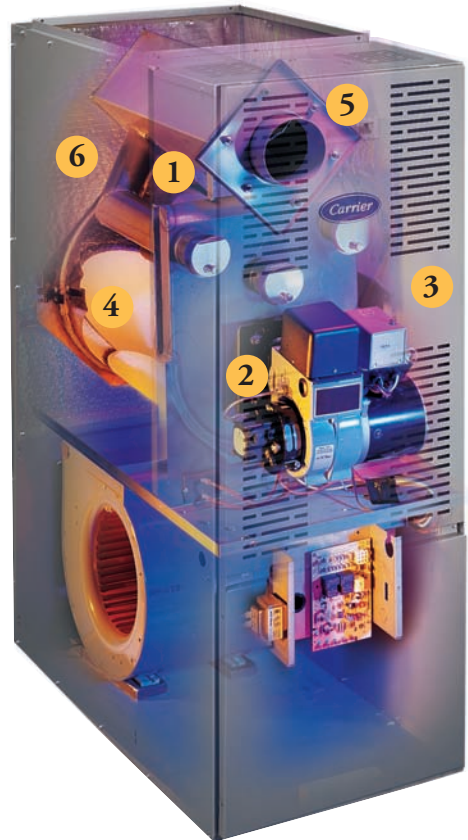

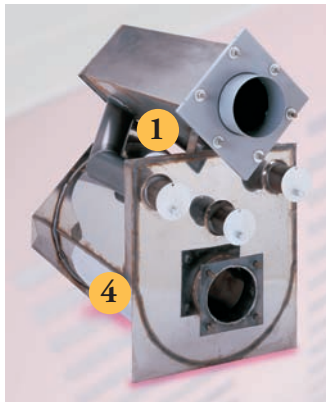

Carrier's exclusive stainless steel combustion chamber acts as a primary heat exchanger to help the furnace convert oil to heat quickly and responsively. That means heat is delivered to your living space faster and more economically. The multi-speed blower distributes air evenly throughout your home so you can enjoy consistent comfort season after season.

A PERFECT FIT

Designed for versatility and durability, a Carrier 58CMA oil furnace will fit your home heating needs perfectly. As a 4-way multipoise furnace, the 58CMA will fit upflow, downflow and right and left horizontal applications. Built for rugged durability, Carrier's oil furnaces will take command of your comfort to ensure reliable, energy-efficient indoor weather for years to come.
